EIGHTEEN EDUCATORS ATTEND UM'S MONTANA WRITING PROJECT

MISSOULA --

Eighteen elementary, middle school and high school educators are taking part in the 1991 Montana Writing Project, being held June 24-July 19 at The University of Montana.

The project is designed for educators committed to improving the teaching of writing at all levels and in all subjects. The participants learn writing strategies, participate in workshops and use microcomputers. By the end of the program, they've become teacher-consultants of writing who can organize writing workshops, develop curricula and assess students' writing skills.

This year's participants include Elizabeth Lousen of Hellgate High School and Robin Parks of DeSmet School in Missoula; Roger Harvey of the Arlee School District; Barbara Forchak of Frenchtown High School; Marcia Halttunen of Lone Rock Elementary School in Stevensville; John Fleming and David Werdin of St. Ignatius Elementary School and Marta Brooks of St. Ignatius High School; Brett Carver of Beaverhead County High School in Dillon; Deborah Porcarelli of Belfry Elementary School; Betty Brasen of Bridger Elementary School; Naomi Miller of Clancy Elementary School; Timothy Kelly of Park City High School; Cecilia Call of Pablo Elementary School; Carol Cooper of West Valley School in Kalispell; Diana Agre of Meadowlark
